Bring Your Imagination To Real With Interior Decorating Websites

At RenoTender, we think that each homeowner deserves the freedom to create a stunning and functional home without fear or uncertainty. As Singapore's leading AI-powered renovation tender platform, we don't just pair you with reliable interior designers and contractors. We enable you to be master of your home makeover fantasy through our free interior decorating websites, online 3D interior designer home tools, and innovative interior design online software. From first sketch to final bid, we make it simple, clear, and fun for you to let your imagination run wild and transform your fantasy home into a reality.

Bringing Design Power to Your Fingertips

Most people are frustrated when they are about to plan a renovation. "Where do I start?", "How do I visualise my ideas?" and "Who do I trust?" can hold you back. We at RenoTender have built intelligent solutions to escape this stress.

Our free online interior design websites give you simple-to-use tools that allow you to walk through designs, try out colors, and come up with very realistic design concepts. Whether to redevelop a small HDB flat to a landed house, our 3D home planner interior online center allows you to see your ideas come to life without breaking a single cent.

Unlike traditional renovation processes, where you sit down with builders and interior designers and get vague concepts, our interior design software online provides you with clarity.You may with our interior design software free online plan several different floor plans, rearrange furniture, and try out materials in the virtual world.

This takes away from you relying only on imagination or mood boards. You already have a working 3D mock-up to show shortlisted interior designers and contractors, your vision crystal clear. Not only does it save time, but it also puts things in order before the renovation, so there are no miscommunications.

Transparent and Competitive Bidding

At RenoTender, we would like to make sure you are getting the best value out of every renovation dollar. Once you are happy with your design plan, you can simply post a tender request on our website. We invite numerous pre-screened interior designers and renovation contractors to submit competing bids that suit your exact scope.

This tendering process ensures that you receive apple-to-apple quotes, and you can compare cost, timeline, and quality without any surprises. Homeowners prefer this transparent system because it excludes guesswork and overbilling.

Hassle-Free, Risk-Free Experience

One of the best things about choosing RenoTender is that our website is completely free to homeowners. You just pay your chosen contractor—no hidden service charges. And, your anonymity is preserved. Your contact details are only passed on to designers you shortlist, reassuring you and giving you control of the process.

Up to now, our free interior designing sites, 3D interior planner home online, and interior design online software have helped hundreds of homeowners in Singapore plan lovely renovations with confidence.

Our Expertise Working for You

With decades of experience in the Singapore renovation industry, we know what works and what doesn't. It is our goal to bridge the difference between current technology and trusted renovation collaborators. Our contractors and interior designers go through a thorough screening process to ensure they meet our high standards of professionalism, craftsmanship, and integrity.

This is to indicate that when you use our online free interior design computer program to create your plan, you can be sure it will be done by reliable hands.

Why Homeowners Choose RenoTender
